Subject Free grant of an additional strip of land for Kunchitigar Burial ground

I have the honour to state that Government, in their Order No L 2440-3/M1 81-39-18 dated 31-8-1939, sanctioned, subject to the conditions laid out therein, the free grant of a strip of land, 360' x 140' - near the Hindu burial ground to Sowcar Mr T Thammanna for being utilised as a burial ground by the people of the Kunchitigar community On issue of an intimation to Mr T Thammanna for executing a mutchalika on the terms contained in the Government Order the gentleman petitioned stating that the strip of land granted is too narrow and would not give a good view and

and therefore as he had to improve the ground by levelling the area and providing a compound theret he would request the grant of the adjoining area f the burial ground The adjoining area measures -- 360' x 120', as noted in the enclosed sketch This area is between the present Hindu cremation ground that already sanctioned in the Government Order ref erred to above to Mr Thammanna Subsequent to the above grant to Mr Thammanna, this area has been co siderably improved and a road is now proposed to be put up between the Hindu Cremation ground and the burial ground, and so the full extent of land aske for by the party could not be given Regarding the grant of the remaining area to the Lunchitigar com munity, this was placed before the Managing Committ on 17-3-1943, when they resolved to grant the land as proposed, on condition that the registration of t whole area, including the one already granted shou be in the name of Mr T Thammanna, on behalf of th community, and he should adhere to the conditions prescribed in the Government Order, noted below* fo for ready reference and that the Municipality will be at liberty to cancel the grant if these conditions are not strictly adhered to within six months from the date of grant The Municipal Council sanctioned the grant of land in their resolution No 645 dated 31-3-1943 as resolved by the Committee I enclose herewith the extracts of their resolutions for the information of Government
